Honey Bee History

Welcome to Honey Bee Golf Club. Set in the heart of Virginia Beach, the course opened for play in 1988. Designed by Rees Jones, the 6075-yard tract has been one of the premiere clubs in the Virginia Beach area because of the plush playing conditions & outstanding layout. The course features Bent grass greens, undulating fairways lined with beautiful hardwoods & pines, along with strategically placed bunkers and ponds bringing water into play on 11 of the 18 holes. All of these elements come together to present healthy challenges to the games of both novice and expert golfers. Honey Bee's easy access & convenient location makes it only minutes from anywhere in Tidewater. Honey Bee Golf Club has been the preferred place to play by more golfers than any other course in Virginia Beach for 20-plus years. Here are the reasons why....

A detailed map of the 18-hole golf course layout. The map shows the progression of the course from the clubhouse and parking area towards the 18th hole. Key features include:

- Clubhouse and Parking: Located near the center, with a sign for 'Clubhouse' and 'Parking'.
- Independence Blvd.: A major road running horizontally across the middle of the map.
- To Salem Rd.: A road branching off to the right from Independence Blvd.
- Range: A large green area labeled 'Range' located south of the clubhouse.
- Holes 1-18: Numbered locations indicating the sequence of the 18 holes. Holes 1-9 are in the southern section, and holes 10-18 are in the northern section.
- Water Features: Several blue areas representing ponds or lakes are scattered throughout the course.
- Trees and Landmarks: Green and brown patches represent different types of terrain and tree clusters.
- Decorative Element: A cartoon bee is in the top left corner.
